

Mark Sullivan is a 6-time Canadian Fiddle Champion. He has been awarded the title of Canadian Grand Master on three occasions and is viewed by many as an Ambassador of Canadian Fiddling. Mark has toured extensively throughout the world and has performed alongside some of the finest names in his field, including The Chieftains, a PBS-TV feature with John McDermott, and Leahy. A leader in Canadian fiddling, Mark is in demand as a spirited performer, sideman, recording artist, guitarist, and teacher. He is a regular instructor at prominent Music Camps in Canada and the United States. Mark holds his Masters in Education and is currently living in Vancouver, Canada working as a teacher and active as a musician. Mark has 6 recordings to his credit. For more information, please visit www.marksullivan.ca